Dear Seekers and Wanderers who Appreciate L/L Research,

It's time! As the last of the leaves fall in Kentucky and the wonderful aroma of holiday cooking fills the air at Camelot, our annual donations drive begins with this letter. It will last until the first of the New Year.

Dear ones, we know that no hard sell is needed! You know who and what we are and what we hope to offer in service to the tribe of humanity. We need your help. About half of our income is in your donations. Without each of them, we could never pay our bills, reprint our books and pay our admin, bookkeeper and Avalon Farm caretaker. Please donate what you can to L/L Research, either using the address above or our online store. With a full heart, we thank you!

Here is a bullet list of things that are new here, despite Carla's having been entirely or partially out of commission due to surgery this year, and despite her facing further surgery in the New Year:

- We recorded our first Homecoming workshop ever, thanks to the videotaping and digital recording of volunteer Renee Martine, who now has joined the home team as a full-time video/audio coordinator and member of the L/L Research labor of love.
- We launched a weekly radio show to replace our old "Live Chats" with Carla. It is called In the Now - Q&A with Carla L. Rueckert and is hosted by volunteer Monica Leal, the moderator of our Bring4th forums, as the questioner on your behalf.
- Thanks to Renee's hard work, we have launched L/L Research into the world of social networking on Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, and a YouTube channel – check us out!
- Thanks to volunteer archive webguy Ian, we have at long last published the entire channeling transcript library to the end of 2008 in eighteen volumes of 400 pages each. New volumes will join these in time, as we produce more channeling sessions.
- Carla's new book, Living the Law of One – 101: The Choice is now published in a Chinese translation by volunteer Terry H in Taiwan
- Steve Engratt, our volunteer webguy for Bring4th, is beginning the long-awaited Ra audio download project. We hope to begin offering these in January 2011.
- Despite Carla's limitations, she offered three talks with interspersed songs at the 2010 Homecoming over Labor Day, and taught at the Cycle Three Channeling Intensive Intro workshop held in October/November.
- Thanks to volunteers, we now can offer on-line Russian and Spanish translations of The Law of One. Soon, Turkish and Hungarian translations shall join them.
- North Atlantic Books has accepted The Aaron-Q'uo Dialogues, which Carla co-channeled with Barbara Brodsky. It has come through much of the editing process, received a beautiful cover and is slated for publication next August.
- Thanks to volunteer Jude R, the pre-editing of the e-book, UNABRIDGED version of A Wanderer's Handbook has begun. Soon the wanderer searching for spiritually oriented information will have access to all the quotes from wanderers around the world who were originally quoted in the work. This will be an expanded resource for many.
- Thanks to volunteer Terry H, we have launched the "LLResearch.org Updates (English)" subscription list. If you like, you can subscribe for free and keep up with what is new on our library site.

Our pledge to you is that this labor of love will continue. All donations will be used carefully and for the appropriate expenses of serving you, our beloved seekers. Carla and Jim continue to lead us with deep devotion, and we who work to help L/L Research feel the same. Thank you so much for whatever you can send us. Whether you donate a dollar or lots of dollars, your donation is invaluable, priceless and infinite. We love you all.
